Brenntag sets highest safety standards in China

As the global market leader in chemical distribution, Brenntag is committed to setting the highest standards in the field of Health, Safety and Environment Protection (HSE). The health of its employees and the safety at its sites is an absolute priority for Brenntag.

In 2014, Zhong Yung International Chemical Co Ltd, the company's Chinese joint venture, together with Brenntag (Shanghai) Chemicals Trading Co. Ltd, achieved the safety performance target of "Zero Accidents", and is now presented with the annual "Brenntag Global Safety Award".

Henri Nejade, CEO Brenntag Asia Pacific, expresses his recognition: "In recent years, Brenntag China has been working diligently on its safety performance by increasing safety awareness, encouraging more near miss reporting, improving safety trainings and supporting internal reviews. We congratulate Brenntag China on this outstanding performance in 2014."

Globally, Brenntag operates according to the principle of "Safety First" and has implemented a HSE strategy and management systems based on the Responsible Care® Program and renowned ISO standards. Brenntag works on continually improving safety culture, operational processes and infrastructure.
