Brenntag AG renews contract of CEO Steven Holland

The Supervisory Board of Brenntag AG, the global market leader in chemical distribution, has renewed the contract of current Chief Executive Officer Steven Holland for five years until February 29, 2020. All areas of responsibilities within the Management Board remain unchanged.

Stefan Zuschke, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Brenntag AG: “Renewing the contract of Steven Holland is a strong signal of continuity. We are very satisfied with the Management Board steering the company in challenging markets worldwide. The Supervisory Board recognizes the management’s expertise and experience leading Brenntag to further growth and success. With Steven Holland at the helm, Brenntag is perfectly positioned for the future growth path and to further expand its leadership in global chemical distribution.”

In 2007 Steven Holland joined the Brenntag Group’s Management Board when he was appointed Chief Executive Officer Brenntag Europe. In 2009 he became Chief Operating Officer for Brenntag’s worldwide operations and in June 2011 he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Brenntag AG.
